Readings at Mass

Entrance Antiphon

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But with you is found forgiveness, O God of Israel.

Ps 129: 3-4

First reading

On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples a banquet of rich food, a banquet of fine wines, of food rich and juicy, of fine strained wines. On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations, he will destroy Death for ever. The Lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek; he will take away his people's Shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so. That day, it will be said: See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation; the Lord is the one in whom we hoped. We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us; for the hand of the Lord rests on this mountain.

Isaiah 25:6-10

Responsorial Psalm

I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me,
to revive my drooping spirit.

I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

He guides me along the right path;
he is true to his name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness
no evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
with these you give me comfort.

I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

You have prepared a banquet for me
in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;

Psalm 22(23)

my cup is overflowing.

I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell
for ever and ever.

I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

Second reading

I know how to be poor and I know how to be rich too. I have been through my initiation and now I am ready for anything anywhere: full stomach or empty stomach, poverty or plenty. There is nothing I cannot master with the help of the One who gives me strength. All the same, it was good of you to share with me in my hardships. In return my God will fulfil all your needs, in Christ Jesus, as lavishly as only God can. Glory to God, our Father, for ever and ever. Amen.

Philippians 4:12-14,19-20

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called. Alleluia!

cf Ephesians 1:17. 18

Gospel

Jesus began to speak to the chief priests and elders of the people in parables: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited" he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding." But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them. The king was furious. He despatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the crossroads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding." So these servants went out on to the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests. When the king came in to look at the guests he noticed one man who was not wearing a wedding garment, and said to him, "How did you get in here, my friend, without a wedding garment?" And the man was silent. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot and throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.'

Matthew 22:1-14

Communion Antiphon

The rich suffer want and go hungry, but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.

Marjorie is such a lovely lady who contributes to all our get together’s. Geraldine and all the Ladies Intentions:

Let us pray for the sick :Colleen Cooper and for all who have asked for our prayers. May God grant them comfort and healing.

Let us pray for those recently deceased :Jim Ryan (brother of Margaret Bottari),Margaret O’Halloran, Fr Charles McBride PE, and for those whose anniversaries that occur at this time: Father Bart Huynh San, Joan Keating and all members of our families, friends, benefactors and all the faithful departed. May God welcome them into the eternal kingdom and give them the reward of their faith filled prayer and faithful service.

Dear Parishioners, This Saturday 10th October marks the first anniversary of death of our beloved former pastor, Fr Bart Huynh San. It is sad we can’t mark the occasion with a more fitting celebration. I will be offering Mass for him. Please pray for the eternal rest of his soul (and perhaps a drink to mark the occasion!)

Providentially this weekend will also see a return to Masses albeit in a very limited way. 5 people will be able to attend an outside ceremony. I will do this by setting up an altar in our foyer and having people sit outside the three open double doors. Sue will move though our mailing list to invite parishioners to come to Mass and book them in. I’m sorry to ask but please don’t just turn up for Mass. This week also saw the feast day of Our Lady of the Rosary, which is a feast for us as at Fatima Our Lady revealed herself to the children at “the Lady of the Rosary.” The feast, formerly Our Lady of Victories, marks the anniversary of the naval victory at Lapanto, warding off the Ottomans. This was one of the most critical battles in world history.

God Bless Fr John Paul Mount
