2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

16th January 2022

Entrance Antiphon

All the earth shall bow down before you, O God, and shall sing to you, shall sing to your name, O Most High!

First reading

About Zion I will not be silent, about Jerusalem I will not grow weary, until her integrity shines out like the dawn and her salvation flames like a torch.

The nations then will see your integrity, all the kings your glory,
and you will be called by a new name,
one which the mouth of the Lord will confer.
You are to be a crown of splendour in the hand of the Lord,
a princely diadem in the hand of your God;

no longer are you to be named ‘Forsaken’,
nor your land ‘Abandoned’,
but you shall be called ‘My Delight’
and your land ‘The Wedded’;
for the Lord takes delight in you and your land will have its wedding.

Like a young man marrying a virgin,
so will the one who built you wed you,
and as the bridegroom rejoices in his bride,
so will your God rejoice in you.

Responsorial Psalm

Proclaim his marvellous deeds to all the nations.

O sing a new song to the Lord, sing to the Lord all the earth.
O sing to the Lord, bless his name.

Proclaim his marvellous deeds to all the nations.

Proclaim his help day by day, tell among the nations his glory and his wonders among all the peoples.

Proclaim his marvellous deeds to all the nations.

Give the Lord, you families of peoples, give the Lord glory and power; give the Lord the glory of his name.

Proclaim his marvellous deeds to all the nations.

Worship the Lord in his temple. O earth, tremble before him.
Proclaim to the nations: ‘God is king.’ He will judge the peoples in fairness.

Proclaim his marvellous deeds to all the nations.

Ps 65: 4

Isaiah 62:1-5

Psalm 95(96):1-3,7-10

Second reading

There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose. One may have the gift of preaching with wisdom given him by the Spirit; another may have the gift of preaching instruction given him by the same Spirit; and another the gift of faith given by the same Spirit; another again the gift of healing, through this one Spirit; one, the power of miracles; another, prophecy; another the gift of recognising spirits; another the gift of tongues and another the ability to interpret them. All these are the work of one and the same Spirit, who distributes different gifts to different people just as he chooses.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! God has called us with the gospel to share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. Alleluia!

Gospel

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee. The mother of Jesus was there, and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited. When they ran out of wine, since the wine provided for the wedding was all finished, the mother of Jesus said to him, ‘They have no wine.’ Jesus said ‘Woman, why turn to me? My hour has not come yet.’ His mother said to the servants, ‘Do whatever he tells you.’ There were six stone water jars standing there, meant for the ablutions that are customary among the Jews: each could hold twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, ‘Fill the jars with water’, and they filled them to the brim. ‘Draw some out now’ he told them ‘and take it to the steward.’ They did this; the steward tasted the water, and it had turned into wine. Having no idea where it came from – only the servants who had drawn the water knew – the steward called the bridegroom and said, ‘People generally serve the best wine first, and keep the cheaper sort till the guests have had plenty to drink; but you have kept the best wine till now.’

This was the first of the signs given by Jesus: it was given at Cana in Galilee. He let his glory be seen, and his disciples believed in him.

Communion Antiphon

You have prepared a table before me, and how precious is the chalice that quenches my thirst.

Or:

We have come to know and to believe in the love that God has for us.

Prayer after Communion

Pour on us, O Lord, the Spirit of your love, and in your kindness make those you have nourished by this one heavenly Bread
one in mind and heart.
Through Christ our Lord.

MASS: Attendance numbers in our Parishes are now not restricted. Face coverings are required whilst you are in the Church for all people eight & over unless a medical exemption applies. Note: Sunday obligation is still not in effect. If you are ill or have symptoms, stay home and get tested. Check in using the QR code or sign in on entry. Sanitise on entry. Please maintain social distance. For those who would rather not come to the Church, masses at St Patrick's Cathedral will continue to be livestreamed daily via Archdiocesan YouTube Channel. Sundays, the 11am Mass will also be televised live on C31 (Please note: C31 is available Channel 44 on digital television).

INTENTIONS: Let us pray for the sick: Colleen Cooper & for all who have asked for our prayers. May God grant them comfort & healing. Let us pray for those recently deceased: & for those whose anniversaries that occur at this time: & all members of our families, friends, benefactors & all the faithful departed. May God welcome them into the eternal kingdom & give them the reward of their faith filled prayer & faithful service.

Thank You! To everyone who helped with the preparation of the Parish for Christmas and the New Year. There are many tasks and duties that need to be done in a Parish not only at this time of the year but all year round so thanks again to our volunteers you are very much appreciated.

CLEANING ROSTERS: For the next 6 months are available in the foyer.

OUR LADY OF FATIMA MEMORIAL GARDEN: Our Memorial Garden is situated on the side of the Church, this is for our parishioners & also for our many visitors who would like to place a plaque in memory of a loved one. If you would like to do this information brochures including an application form are available from Father or the Parish Office during office hours.

PARISH GARDENS: This is a time of the year that our gardens require more water than usual. Elaine would like to take this opportunity to thank the visitors who answered her call for help with the watering of the gardens the other week. If you can spare some time to help with this important task to keep our gardens going please contact Sue in the Parish Office.

REMINDER: Please remember to turn off your mobile phone whilst in the Church. Thank you Children are to be supervised by a parent/guardian at all times.
